✓ List of your requested documents (upon your arrival at our university):

- Application form,
- Accommodation form,
- Learning Agreement (two originals),
- Transcript of records, and
- 2 passport size photos.

✓ Please send us the scan of the documents mentioned above before the application deadline.

✓ Please do not send us any original document before your arrival!

Suggestions: Remember to take the 2 photos (apart from the photos for the Application form and Accommodation form), ID card, visa or passport because you need them in the registration and application to residence permit processes. You may need the letter of invitation, we will send it you in a short time in order to get visa from the embassy. When you arrive, you need to receive residence permit from the police station if you are going to stay in Romania more than three months. We help you in this process.

Depending on the number of incoming students, we could offer Romanian language course. There will be no credits for this course. Please keep in mind that the course will be given during the course of the semester, not before the semester begins.
